

Chelsea Duke

BA (Hons), MSc Human Resource Management, Chartered Member CIPD

HR Business Partner

Chelsea is the HR Business Partner for South East Employers, joining the team in 2023. Chelsea brings with her a wealth of people management experience in a variety of sectors and business types. With over 10 years of experience in HR roles at Hampshire County Council, Chelsea has also worked within Higher Education, pharmaceuticals, technology, and the funeral industry in the UK, in addition to telecoms whilst spending a year living and working in New Zealand. Travel and learning about different cultures is one of her passions, and Chelsea has also volunteered with a local bereavement charity since 2014, spending five years as Chair and Trustee.

Chelsea enjoys working with employment law, policy and employee relations casework. She is experienced in adapting policy in response to legislative changes, and is also a trained job evaluator with experience in job design. Chelsea works with Michelle and David to support members with day to day HR advice, running our local networks, and delivering consultancy support for discipline, grievance, TUPE and performance/absence management cases. Chelsea also authors articles for our website and newsletter, in addition to recording some of our podcasts.
